

Centro Universitario Occidente Universidad de Costa Rica
Campus Carlos Monge Alfaro
Departamento Filosofia, Artes y Letras
Seccion Lenguas Modernas
Programa Gramatica Inglesa II
II semestre 1987.

Curso LM 1202. 30 creditos

DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

This course will complete the study of basic patterns given in Grammar I, at the same time it will prepare for the study of more complex patterns in Grammar III.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course it will be covered

1. the correct use of the verb phrase using correct tense and aspect.
2. Special features of the verb phrase like modal auxiliaries, passive voice, conditionals.
3. Different kinds of verbs like linking, transitive with two objects, verbs followed by non-finite.

CONTENTS

- | | |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------|
| I. The verb Phrase | 6. Reported statements and questions |
| 1. The verb be | 7. The modal auxiliaries |
| 2. The present | 8. Talking about the future |
| 3. The past | 9. The Passive |
| 4. Have and Have got | 10. Mixed verb forms |
| 5. Perfect aspect | 11. Conditionals |

II. Complementation of the verb

1. The use of linking verbs
2. Verbs followed by two objects
3. Verbs followed by to. . . or. . . -ing
4. Verbs followed by a noun phrase and a non-finite verb

EVALUATION

There will be three partial exams with 20% each of the value of the total grade. The rest 40% will be assigned to the grades of the average of the quizzes.

The passing grade is 7.00. Those students with average between 6.00 - 6.50 will have an Ampliacion Exam whose subject matter will be decided by the teacher and the student on due time.

CALENDAR FOR PARTIALS

First Partial - - - - - 1 of september
Second - - - - - 20 of october
Third partial - - - - - 17 of november

BIBLIOGRAPHY

- Shepherd J, Rossner R. Taylor J. (1984) WAYS TO GRAMMAR, Mcmillan London.
- Taylor, Grant (1950) MASTERING AMERICAN ENGLISH. Mc. Graw-Hill
Book Company, Inc. USA.
- Wilcox, Peterson Patricia (1980) CHANGING TIME, CHANGING TENSES
United States Information Agency Washington, USA

96